Use Coconut Oil
For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulled coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulled coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

DECLARES BIELASKI
'BEST IN BUSINESS'

"The keenest and most efficient Secret Service chief of the war and the best-informed man in America on Hun propaganda."

This is the compliment that John Lord O'Brien, Assistant Attorney General, pays to A. Bruce Bielaski, former chief of the Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice, according to a statement by the American Protective League today. The league made public a compilation of the agencies engaged in running down Hun propaganda, which showed that the United States had 250,000 men in the secret service work.

According to the league, the Bureau of Investigation received an average of 1,700 complaints a day and rounded up and indicted into service more than 40,000 slackers and deserters.

On the occasion of an address at the presentation of an automobile to Mr. Bielaski by the employees of his bureau, Assistant Attorney General O'Brien took occasion to refer to the bureau chief as the best investigator of Hun propaganda in America.

"Foreign observers have said that the American Secret Service within the United States was the most efficient Government service in the war," said Mr. O'Brien.

INVENTOR OF FIRST
TYPEWRITER DIES

Funeral services for Col. Benton Halstead, inventor of the first working typewriter and a veteran of the civil war, will be held from his home, 1898 Biltmore street northwest, at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. Interment will be at Arlington National Cemetery.

Colonel Halstead died at his home early yesterday morning. He was eighty-five years old.

He was born near Cincinnati, Ohio, March 11, 1834, and received his education at College Hill. When the civil war began he recruited his own company of volunteers, at Hamilton, Ohio, and was commissioned its captain, under Gen. Lewis D. Campbell. He served during the war with the Sixty-ninth and Seventy-ninth Ohio Volunteers and was on General Sherman's staff during the March to the Sea.

He was commissioned a colonel at the close of the war and was placed in command of the 187th regiment.

Colonel Halstead is survived by his widow and one son, Col. Laurence Halstead, chief of the Bureau of Operations of the First American army in France. His only daughter, Lenore, died about two months ago, and a son, Benton, Jr., died in 1901.

DR. H. M. BENNETT.

Funeral services for Dr. H. M. Bennett, for years one of Washington's best known physicians, who died at midnight last night, will be held from his home in Takoma Park, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The services will be in charge of the Masonic Lodge and of the G. A. T. post, of which he was a member. Dr. Bennett was seventy-five years old, and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Effie B. Decker, of this city, and Mrs. Edgar Allan, Jr., of Richmond, Va.

SGT. A. L. KIDWELL.

The death of Mess Sgt. Allen Leon Kidwell, Company A, 312th Machine Gun Battalion, 79th division, in France was today reported by the War Department to his mother, Mrs. B. Kidwell, 3110 Woodley road northwest. Sergeant Kidwell died on February 10, according to the telegram.

He entered the service in September, 1917, and was sent to Camp Meade for training. He participated in all the battles in which the 312th played a part.

He was born in Washington twenty-nine years ago and has lived here all his life. He is survived by his parents and by his wife, who lives at 312 Florida avenue northwest.

SHOT IN HEAD, LIVES,
5-FOOT FALL FATAL

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Living twenty years with a bullet in his brain, Edgar Wilgus, an insurance broker of Trenton, N. J., was killed yesterday by a five-foot fall at the Hotel Astor. He fell as he was leaving the hotel. His head struck the granite steps and he sustained a fracture at the base of the skull. He died two hours later in the French Hospital.

Discovery of the bullet in his brain by means of an x-ray picture was responsible for a busy hour in the hospital and on the part of the county medical examiner's office and the police, who could not understand how a man could be shot at the entrance to the Hotel Astor at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, with a criminal and outside the hotel, and no one hear the shot.

A telephone message to Wilgus' home revealed the fact that a score of years ago, a bullet which destroyed his left eye had been left in the brain and had occasioned him no trouble.

ASKS SPECIAL FUND TO KEEP AWAY FLU

All health agencies of the government may be enlisted in the campaign to prevent the recurrence of an influenza epidemic in this country next winter. Such an epidemic is predicted by Rear Admiral W. C. Braisted, who has written to Congressman Peas urging a large appropriation by Congress for research work to determine the cause and cure of the disease.

The sundry civil bill carries an appropriation of only $300,000 for the study of diseases. This sum is far too small, in the opinion of Admiral Braisted, for the task. He recommends a special appropriation to be divided between the Public Health Service, the surgeon general of the army and the surgeon general of the navy.

OBJECTORS GIVE UP PAY.

Conscientious objectors have returned to the War Department, the Friends' Society, the Y. M. C. A. and the Red Cross approximately $20,000 of the money paid them, the War Department announced yesterday. Of this sum $4,219.32 has been received by the War Department, $4,000 by the Friends' Society, and $270 by the Y. M. C. A. It is estimated that the 1,500 objectors who were given farm furloughs have sent to the Red Cross $10,000, representing a difference between the dollar-a-day rate paid to soldiers and the prevailing wages received by these men.

Just Try This When Hairy Growths Appear

(Modes of Today)
A smooth, hairless skin always follows the use of a paste made by mixing some water with plain powdered delatone. This paste is applied to the hairy surface 2 or 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished. No pain or discomfort attends the use of the delatone paste, but caution should be exercised to be sure that you get real delatone.

Columbia
Records"Kisses"—a Wonderful
Sequel to "Smiles"

This ballad melodiously sings the difference between all other kisses and "the first real kiss you have." The accompaniment is almost sweeter than the melody. "Kisses" are even better than "Smiles," and the song does justice to its subject. A-2676—85c.

The thrill of victory, paternal pride, mother love and little brother hero worship are in every line and note of this stirring song of welcome. It quickly convinces you, too, that "every lad in khaki clad was a fighting son-of-a-gun." A-2679—85c.

"Spirit of Victory"
a Whirlwind March

The crash of the drums and the blare of the trombone are mingled in this magnificent march with the shrill sound of the piccolos. This splendid band record fairly makes you see our youthful conquerors marching up the street. A-7535—$1.25.
